

In Luke we find the story of the Good Samaritan who does not hesitate to take care of the wounded traveler lying by the side of the road. At the end of the story we are urged to go and do likewise. The new Pacific Mission Exchange website, makes it easier then ever to find those who need our help.

www.pacificmissionexchange.org