

contact Kathy Trott at (530) 312-0100
www.pacificmissionexchange.org

Here are some graphics to use in your church or organization's newsletter, bulletins, or other announcements.

Connecting to local, regional, and international Presbyterian mission projects is now easier than ever at the new Pacific Mission Exchange website at www.pacificmissionexchange.org.

The new Presbyterian social-giving website, Pacific Mission Exchange, makes finding a great project for your end-of-the-year non-profit donation easier than ever. See real projects helping real people at www.pacificmissionexchange.org

From providing safe housing for college students to shelters for the homeless, a mission project near you is making a difference. Now you can be a part of that difference when you visit the new Pacific Mission Exchange website at www.pacificmissionexchange.org

Exciting, life changing work is going on near where you live and Pacific Mission Exchange makes that work easy to find and support with money and volunteer hours. To learn more, visit www.pacificmissionexchange.org

The new Presbyterian social-giving website, Pacific Mission Exchange, makes finding a great project for your end-of-the-year non-profit donation easier than ever. See real projects helping real people at www.pacificmissionexchange.org

In Luke we find the story of the Good Samaritan who does not hesitate to take care of the wounded traveler lying by the side of the road. At the end of the story we are urged to go and do likewise. The new Pacific Mission Exchange website, www.pacificmissionexchange.org, makes it easier than ever to find those who need our help.